Subject: Report on the celebration of the 77th Republic Day.

Respected Sir/Madam,

Jay Jalaram Ayurvedic Medical College & Smt. Damyantiben Patel Ayurved Hospital, Shivpuri, Godhra, celebrated the 77th Republic Day on 26th January 2026 with immense patriotic fervor. Organized under the guidance of the Principal and faculty members, the event saw active participation from students, interns, and the entire hospital staff. The celebration aimed to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India and reinforce the values of democracy, unity, and national integrity within our academic community.

Objectives of the Programme

To commemorate the 77th Republic Day of India.

To cultivate awareness regarding constitutional duties and civic responsibility.

To promote national integration and a spirit of patriotism.

To encourage student engagement in extracurricular and leadership-driven activities.

Programme Highlights

1. Flag Hoisting Ceremony

The programme commenced with the ceremonial unfurling of the National Flag by the Principal. As the flag was hoisted, the assembly stood in unison to sing the National Anthem, followed by a solemn pledge to uphold the ideals of the Constitution and contribute to the nation's progress.

2. Address by the Principal

The Principal delivered an inspiring address, reflecting on the historical significance of Republic Day. The speech emphasized the role of healthcare professionals in society and encouraged students to balance their academic pursuits with professional ethics and dedication to patient care.

3. Cultural Programme

Students showcased their talents through a series of patriotic performances, including vocal recitals, group yoga-dance segments, and inspirational speeches. These performances effectively highlighted India's rich cultural heritage and diversity.

4. Recognition and Certificate Distribution

In recognition of their active contribution to the event's success, certificates of appreciation and participation were awarded to the student volunteers and performers. The Principal commended the students for their discipline and creative commitment to the college's cultural life.

5. Refreshments

Following the formal proceedings, refreshments were distributed to all attendees. This concluding session facilitated informal interaction and camaraderie among the faculty, staff, and student body, marking a warm and successful end to the celebration.

Outcome of the Programme

The 77th Republic Day celebration was a resounding success, achieving the following:

Enhanced Patriotism: Strengthened the bond of national unity among students and staff.

Constitutional Awareness: Promoted a deeper understanding of democratic values.

Leadership Development: Provided a platform for students to demonstrate organizational skills and teamwork.

Institutional Spirit: Fostered a sense of belonging and collective pride within the JJAMC community.
